Side With Love

For Your Reflection

I Keep Six Honest Serving Men, a poem by Rudyard Kipling

I KEEP six honest serving-men
(They taught me all I knew);
Their names are What and Why and When
And How and Where and Who.
I send them over land and sea,
I send them east and west;
But after they have worked for me,
I give them all a rest.

I let them rest from nine till five,
For I am busy then,
As well as breakfast, lunch, and tea,
For they are hungry men.
But different folk have different views;
I know a person small—
She keeps ten million serving-men,
Who get no rest at all!

She sends 'em abroad on her own affairs,

From the second she opens her eyes —
One million Hows, two million Wheres,
And seven million Whys!

—Rudyard Kipling

Upcoming Services

April 28: Open Mic Poetry Sunday by Candis Harbison. Bring your poems! This will be poetry Sunday (April 28), so bring an original poem that expresses your own feelings or a poem by someone else which reflects your feelings or which caught your attention. There will be time for you to read one longer poem or two or more shorter ones. And they don't even have to rhyme!

May 5: IT'S A BUSY SUNDAY.... Michael Lister is back for his service "Plurality and Paradox". Join us for this popular speaker! PLUS... A kids' program will be offered during the service AND it's Potluck Sunday! Article II Feedback opportunity will also be available after service. Learn more about Article II

May 12: TBD by Arletha Sparks

Announcements

Care List - If you or someone you know needs support from the UU, please let us know. We're starting a Care List to be read during Joys and Concerns each week...in addition to individual sharing...to help keep those needing some extra support top of mind. Details can be kept confidential if you'd like, but community is about knowing you're not alone, so please don't feel like you have to go it alone. You're welcome to email us at info@uuofbaycounty.com or drop a note in the offering.

ALSO...

We would like to send caring cards to those in need. If you know anyone that might welcome a card whether they are sick, upset, have lost a loved one, etc., please send an e-mail to: info@uuofbaycounty.com with their contact information. The cards will come from UUFBC.

Next work-day is April 28th after service. Plan to stick around and help around the facility. We'll be painting the benches out back and we have some yardwork planned. Please dress appropriately to work outside. Lunch will be provided for the workers!

A Youth Program will be available on the first Sunday of the month starting on May 5th! We invite those with "littles" to encourage them to participate!

Pet Memorial Space - For many of us, losing a pet is a devastating experience, especially if your current housing isn't suitable to lay them to rest properly. We'd like to make the UU property available for that purpose for anyone in need of some space. Please reach out, if and when the time comes for you.

Article II Feedback. On May 5th after service, we'll again offer an opportunity to hear your feedback on the proposed Article II changes to our UUA Bylaws that will be voted on at General Assembly in June. This is your opportunity to share your support or concern for these changes and we encourage you to do so. Learn more about the changes: <https://www.uua.org/uuagovernance/committees/article-ii-study-commission/about-article-2>

Interfaith Harmony Council Potluck is May 11th. Hosted by the Emerald Coast Pagan Community, it will be held at the UUFBC starting at 5:30pm. All are invited to attend.

Annual Meeting is Sunday, May 19th. Member Packets will be available starting May 5th. All Members are asked to attend. Friends and visitors are also welcome to participate, excluding the voting items. If you're considering becoming a member of the UU, please let us know so we can get you on the roster before the meeting. Only members are allowed to vote. Thank you!

Get involved with UUtheVote this election year!! Contact Bob Gilmore for more details.

Book Club

For March, April, and May we will read Proud: My Fight for an Unlikely American Dream. By Ibtihah Muhammad. She is an Olympic medalist in Fencing, and Muslim. This book honors Women's History Month with a nod to Islam during Ramadan. It is an award-winning biography. There are two copies at the library. It is available as an e-book and audio CD as well. We will meet in May for a discussion. Below is a link to Amazon with full description.

If you have any trouble with the links or downloads, just email me at scott@soulmatterssharingcircle.com and I will email the packets to you directly.

UCNWFL presents our 2024 Spring Concert

Singing for Our Lives

Monday, May 13th 7pm

St. Andrews Episcopal

1608 Baker Court

At this critical time in our history, music can bring a focus to issues touching us all. Songs like "Singing for Our Lives", "The Awakening", "We Shall Overcome", "Let the River Run", and "This is Me" will draw a glorious portrait of hope. Come live this music with us, make some waves, and be uplifted by the hope that has us singing for our lives.

Dear UU Ministry for Earth Community,

We have loved creating free monthly worship and small group ministry resources for you - all focused on Earth care and climate justice. We publish the information two months in advance of the time you'll actually use them.

And so here in April 2024, we bring you the resources for June 2024. The theme is “Come to our Senses”, and we explore ways to engage your physical senses to restore a right relationship with nature. We also include a Summer Solstice ceremony.

You are invited to visit our website for an overview of Monthly Musings along with past issues. And this Google folder is where you can find the content in both PDF and Google Doc format.

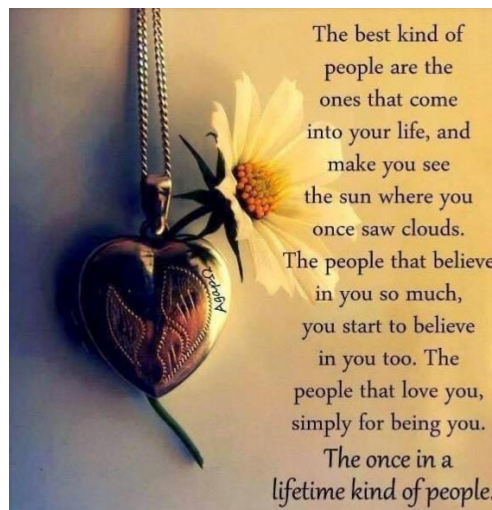

We are taking a break from Monthly Musings so we can focus on planning the Climate Justice Revival which is September 28 and 29, 2024. We hope you'll participate and register your congregation soon.

With gratitude for your commitment to our faith and climate justice!
